OACDL DUI Seminar BIOGRAPHIES

Alonda Bush is an Assistant Public Defender with the Cuyahoga County Public Defender Office where she handles OVI and other traffic cases. Alonda graduated Cum Laude from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law in 2016.

T. Douglas Clifford is in private practice focusing on criminal and OVI/DUI defense. Doug is an Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers board member and CLE co-chair; founding member of the DUI Defense Lawyers Association; National College for DUI Defense member; associate member of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences and member of the American Chemical Society – Chemistry and Law Division. He has achieved ACS-CHAL's Forensic Lawyer-Scientist designation. And he has been trained in the NHTSA Standardized Field Sobriety Testing protocol. Doug received his JD from Case Western Reserve Law School in 2001.

Kenneth A. Bossin is a private practitioner who is certified as an instructor for the NHTSA DWI Detection and Standardized Field Sobriety Testing program. Ken has served as an expert regarding field sobriety tests in an Aggravated Vehicular Homicide and other OVI cases. And he served on the Ohio Sentencing Commission's Traffic Law Subcommittee. Ken is a member of the Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and National College of DUI Defense. He received his JD from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.

Meredith O'Brien is an Associate Attorney at Bailey Legal Group in Sandusky, Ohio. Prior to joining the firm, she was a Public Defender in Cuyahoga County. Meredith is certified in the NHTSA's Standardized Field Sobriety Testing program. She serves on the Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers' executive committee and is co-chair for CLE. Meredith received her JD from Dequesne University School of Law in 2010.

Joseph Hada dedicates his practice to OVI/DUI, criminal and traffic defense. He is one of five practicing attorneys in Ohio who has earned the American Chemical Society – Chemistry and Law Division's Forensic Lawyer-Scientist designation. And he completed NHTSA's DWI Detection Standardized Field Sobriety Testing and Advanced Roadside Impaired Driving Enforcement training. Joe was the lead attorney behind ensuring that breath test results from the faulty Intoxilyzer 8000 would be deemed inadmissible in a court of law. He is on the Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers' Board of Directors. Joe received his JD from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.

Jeffrey Kakish is an associate attorney at Quinn Legal Associates who dedicates his practice to OVI/DUI, criminal and traffic defense. He began his legal career with the Lake County Public Defender Office where he successfully litigated numerous motion hearings and trials. Jeff was the first Ohio attorney to earn the American Chemical Society – Chemistry and Law Division's Forensic Lawyer-Scientist designation in 2016. In earning this designation, he has developed specialized knowledge on Gas Chromatography and forensic lab testing of drugs and alcohol. Jeff graduated from Roger Williams University School of Law with a JD in 2010.

D. Timothy Huey is a past-president of the Ohio Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and current president of the DUI Defense Lawyers Association. He has chaired OACDL's "Best in the Midwest" DUI seminar for several years and serves on the teaching faculty for the National College for DUI Defense's annual seminar at Harvard University. Tim led the team that destroyed the Intoxilyzer 8000 in State v. Lancaster and State v. Jerome. In State v. Ilg, he helped convince the Ohio Supreme Court that accused citizens have a right to challenge their breath test results. Tim received his JD from Capital Law School.

Josh Ott was born and raised in Sandusky, Ohio. He was an officer with the Roswell, Georgia Police Department for nearly 11 years. Officer Ott was responsible for the arrest of over 1700 impaired drivers. He was certified as a Drug Recognition Expert, a Drug Recognition Expert instructor and a Standardized Field Sobriety Testing instructor. He has been certified by NASBLA in DUI detection and the Seated Battery of Standardized Field Sobriety Tests. Josh now provides reviews and testimony for cases involving alcohol and/or drug impairment.

Dan Sabol devotes much of his practice to OVI law. He was responsible for a "trooper of the year" having his permit declared invalid from the point it was renewed, which led to the Ohio Administrative Code being amended last July. Dan is qualified as a Standardized Field Sobriety Testing instructor and has completed ARIDE and Drug Recognition Expert training. Dan has earned the American Chemical Society – Chemistry and Law Division's Forensic Lawyer-Scientist designation. He is a board member of the DUI Defense Lawyers Association. Dan received his JD from The Ohio State University.

Andy Bucher Andy's formal education sets him apart from other OVI defense attorneys. Andy has a BSPS (Bachelors of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences) from the University of Toledo's College of Pharmacy, and a BBA (Bachelors of Business Administration) from the University of Toledo's School of Business. He received his JD from the University of Toledo College of Law. He has briefed and argued before the Ohio Supreme Court and conducted jury trials in felony and misdemeanor matters. Andy is NHTSA certified to administer Standardized Field Sobriety Testing. Andy is a former public defender.
